Admission Policy of Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir

School Address: Mount St. Nicholas, Carrick-on-Suir, Co. Tipperary

Roll number: 65270U

School Patron: The Edmund Rice Schools Trust.

1. Introduction

This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the board of management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

In accordance with Section 62 of the Education Act 1998, the board of management of Edmund Rice Secondary School has inserted the following text in the school's Admission Statement, as required by the Education (Provision in Respect of Children with Special Educational Needs) Act 2022:

Edmund rice Secondary School will cooperate with the NCSE in the performance by the Council of its functions under the Education for Persons with Special Educational Needs Act 2004 in relation to the provision of education to children with special educational needs, including in particular by the provision and operation of a special class or classes when requested to do so by the Council."

Edmund Rice Secondary School will comply with any direction served on the board or the patron under section 37A and 67(4)(b) of the Education Act 1998.”

The policy was approved by the school patron on February 1st 2023. It is published on the school’s website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir admission process are set out in the school’s annual admission notice which is published annually on the school’s website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned.

This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned.

The application form for admission is published on the school’s website www.erss.ie and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Our Mission Statement

"To provide a caring Christian community, which celebrates effort and talent in an environment of hope and happiness."

The characteristic spirit of our school is based on the vision and values of the Edmund Rice Schools Trust Charter. The five characteristics of an Edmund Rice School underpin the operation of an Edmund Rice Secondary School, namely:

- Nurturing faith, Christian spirituality and gospel-based values,
- Promoting partnership,
- Creating a caring school community
- Inspiring transformational leadership
- Excellence in teaching and learning.

For further information on the Edmund Rice Schools Trust and the Edmund Rice Schools Trust Charter, see www.EdmundRiceSchoolsTrust.ie

In Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir the Edmund Rice Schools Trust Charter values are underpinned by a philosophy of education that has at its centre the unique dignity of the human person as a child of God. We see the interaction of people from different backgrounds -spiritual, ethnic, language, special needs as a gift that will enrich the community of the school and promote the growth and learning of all. We value each student and their family.

We welcome and are sensitive to each one, seeking to respond to their individual needs through:
The Curriculum: We provide a broad range of subject areas, encouraging students to take increasing responsibility for their own learning and decision-making.

Pastoral Care: We support and challenge our students to make the most of their time in school, providing programmes of language support, help with study, and personal counselling where necessary and developing links with family, working in partnership with parents and guardians.

Faith Development: We have a special commitment to development of the spiritual dimension of the lives of our members. Faith formation and the Religious Education programme play a key role:

- Students follow a programme in Religious Education which is suitable for students of all faiths and those of no faith.
- The school celebrates the major Christian feasts, and the major feasts of other faiths are acknowledged and celebrated in an appropriate way.
- We hope that the gospel values inherent in the culture of the school will be internalised in the values, attitudes and behaviours of all members of the school community and will find expression in their respect and care for one another.
- We encourage students to become actively involved in charitable organisations e.g. Young St. Vincent de Paul and to show concern for less well off in our local community
- At Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir we foster care for the environment. All members of the school community are encouraged to take an active interest in respecting, appreciating, enjoying and preserving the natural environment and the wonders of God's creation.

The school is open to and welcomes all who share this vision and wish to benefit from it.

What will not be considered or taken into account

In accordance with section 62(7)(e) of the Education Act, the school will not consider or take into account any of the following in deciding on applications for admission or when placing a student on a waiting list for admission to the school:

- (a) a student's prior attendance at a pre-school or pre-school service, including naíonraí,
- (b) the payment of fees or contributions (howsoever described) to the school; (other than in relation to a fee charging school or a plc or further education and training course run by a school in respect of those courses)
- (c) a student's academic ability, skills or aptitude; other than in relation to:
 - admission to a special class insofar as it is necessary in order to ascertain whether or not the student has the category of special educational needs concerned and/or
 - admission to an Irish language school, in accordance with the provisions of section 62(9) of the Act
- (d) the occupation, financial status, academic ability, skills or aptitude of a student's parents;
- (e) a requirement that a student, or his or her parents, attend an interview, open day or other meeting as a condition of admission;
- (f) a student's connection to the school by virtue of a member of his or her family attending or having previously attended the school; other than, in the case of the school wishing to include selection criteria based on (1) siblings of a student attending or having attended the school and/or (2) parents or grandparents of a student having attended the school.

In relation to (2) parents and grandparents having attended, a school may only apply this criterion to a maximum of 25% of the available spaces as set out in the school's annual admission notice.

- (g) the date and time on which an application for admission was received by the school; this is subject to the application being received at any time during the period specified for receiving applications set out in the annual admission notice of the school for the school year concerned.

This is also subject to the school making offers based on existing waiting lists (up until 31st January 2025 only).

Decisions on applications

All decisions on applications for admission to Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir will be based on the following:

- Our school's admission policy
- The school's annual admission notice (where applicable)
- The information provided by the applicant in the school's official application form received during the period specified in our annual admission notice for receiving applications

(Please see section 15 below in relation to applications received outside of the admissions period and section 16 below in relation to applications for places in years other than the intake group.)

Selection criteria that are not included in our school admission policy will not be used to make a decision on an application for a place in our school.

Notifying applicants of decisions

Applicants will be informed in writing as to the decision of the school, within the timeline outlined in the annual admissions notice.

If a student is not offered a place in our school, the reasons why they were not offered a place will be communicated in writing to the applicant, including, where applicable, details of the student's ranking against the selection criteria and details of the student's place on the waiting list for the school year concerned.

Applicants will be informed of the right to seek a review/right of appeal of the school's decision (see section 18 below for further details).

Acceptance of an offer of a place by an applicant

In accepting an offer of admission from Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir you must indicate

(i) whether or not you have accepted an offer of admission for another school or schools. If you have accepted such an offer, you must also provide details of the offer or offers concerned and

(ii) whether or not you have applied for and awaiting confirmation of an offer of admission from another school or schools, and if so, you must provide details of the other school or schools concerned.

Circumstances in which offers may not be made or may be withdrawn

An offer of admission may not be made or may be withdrawn by Edmund Rice Secondary School where—

- (i) it is established that information contained in the application is false or misleading.
- (ii) an applicant fails to confirm acceptance of an offer of admission on or before the date set out in the annual admission notice of the school.
- (iii) the parent of a student, when required by the principal in accordance with section 23(4) of the Education (Welfare) Act 2000, fails to confirm in writing that the code of behaviour of the school is acceptable to him or her and that he or she shall make all reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with such code by the student; or
- (iv) an applicant has failed to comply with the requirements of ‘acceptance of an offer’ as set out in section 10 above.

Sharing of Data with other schools

Applicants should be aware that section 66(6) of the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 allows for the sharing of certain information between schools in order to facilitate the efficient admission of students.

Waiting list in the event of oversubscription

In the event of there being more applications to the school year concerned than places available, a waiting list of students whose applications for admission to Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir were unsuccessful due to the school being oversubscribed will be compiled and will remain valid for the school year in which admission is being sought.

Placement on the waiting list of Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir is in the order of priority assigned to the students’ applications after the school has applied the selection criteria in accordance with this admission policy.

Offers of any subsequent places that become available for and during the school year in relation to which admission is being sought will be made to those students on the waiting list, in accordance with the order of priority in relation to which the students have been placed on the list.

Late Applications

All applications for admission received after the closing date as outlined in the annual admission notice will be considered and decided upon in accordance with our school’s admissions policy, the Education Admissions to School Act 2018 and any regulations made under that Act.

Procedures for admission of students to other years and during the school year

The procedures of the school in relation to the admission of students who are not already admitted to the school to classes or years other than the school's intake group are as follows:

Transition Year 2023-2024

It is the policy of Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir to make the curriculum and resources available where possible to all students. It may, however, be necessary for insurance reasons and to comply with class size directives to limit the numbers accepted into our Transition Year (See Transition Year Policy). The Transition Year Coordinator in conjunction with school management will allocate places in such an event based on:

- Existing pupils of Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir will get priority over boys transferring from other schools.
- The selection process will take the greater good of the school overall into consideration when allocating places and will consider the students who applied for entry into Transition Year by the deadline specified on the application form (a copy of the application form will be sent to the parents/guardians of 3rd year students in advance)
- Age – had the student already been afforded the chance to repeat a year in Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir
- Disciplinary record of the student to date.
- Family circumstances
- Health and Safety

In the event of a pupil being refused admission to Transition Year his parents/guardians have the right to appeal such a decision to the Board of Management. This appeal will be held at the next ordinary meeting of the Board. If this is not suitable the Chairperson of the Board may call a special meeting to deal with the appeal.

Transfer of students from other schools 2023-2024

Students may transfer to Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir from another secondary school, subject to the guidelines laid out in this admissions policy. It would be in everyone's interests if transfers took place at the beginning of the school year. Transfers at other times will only be considered in extenuating circumstances such as family relocation or bullying in previous school etc. However, the Principal of Edmund Rice Secondary School must be satisfied with the reasons for the transfer and therefore relevant information will be requested from the student's former schools.

With the best interest of the student in mind and his educational welfare and those of existing pupils in Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir the school may decide for reasons including class size, subject choices and available resources to refuse admission at the time of application. The school may advise the parents/guardian of the pupil to reapply at the start of the following school year.

In the event of a pupil being refused admission in such circumstances his parents/guardians have the right to appeal such a decision to the Board of Management. This appeal will be held at the next ordinary meeting of the Board. If this is not suitable the Chairperson of the Board may call a special meeting to deal with the appeal.

- Where the board deems there to be a vacancy in a particular year group notwithstanding that the number currently in the year may be less than the maximum number allowable as stated in this policy.

Repeat Leaving Certificate Students 2023-2024

The school is willing to consider applications from students for places in 6th Year in order for them to repeat the Leaving Certificate examination. Applications for such places will not be considered until after the publication of the Leaving Certificate results in August each year. The principal will, in the first instance, determine whether or not a place to repeat will be offered to a student. The decision of the principal will be based on the following factors:

- The record (academic and disciplinary) of the student to date. If the application is from a student who attended another school, then the record of the student will be sought from that school. (If the application to repeat is from a female student, then permission will have to be sought from the Board of Management/Trustees before a place can be offered).
- The likely possibility of the student benefiting in personal and academic ways from repeating the year.
- The likely impact of the student on the incoming 6th Year classes.
- The opinions of teachers who taught the student in previous years.
- The availability of a place in the incoming 6th Year classes.

All other things being equal, preference will be given to former students of the school in the event of there being more applications for places to repeat than there are places available.

The decision of the Principal to refuse an application for a place in the school to repeat the Leaving Certificate examination may be appealed to the Board of Management.

Declaration in relation to the non-charging of fees

The Board of Management of Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir or any persons acting on its behalf will not charge fees for or seek payment or contributions (howsoever described) as a condition of-

- (a) an application for admission of a student to the school, or
- (b) the admission or continued enrolment of a student in the school.

Arrangements regarding students not attending religious instruction.

The following are the school's arrangements for students, where the parents or in the case of a student who has reached the age of 18 years, the student, who has requested that the student attend the school without attending religious instruction in the school. These arrangements will not result in a reduction in the school day of such students:

Parents of students and students (over 18) who wish to opt out of RE class should make a written request to the principal. A meeting will then be arranged with the parent or the student, as the case may be, to discuss their options. The non-instructional nature of the RE class, the emphasis on studying world religions and the opportunity for inter-faith dialogue will be pointed out in these discussions. Throughout this process the constitutional right of the parent/ student (over 18 years) will be respected by the school.

The 1998 Education Act states that schools are required to promote the moral, spiritual, social and personal development of students (Section 9 (d)). At Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir the allocated time on the timetable for Religious Education responds to this. Students who opt out of RE class are required to use this time to study material relating to their own religious tradition or belief, for example sacred texts. Students of no religious faith are required to study relevant literature or philosophical texts. A list of suggested texts can be provided by the school. In line with the Edmund Rice Schools Trust Charter, Edmund Rice Secondary School, Carrick-on-Suir places great importance on the religious or spiritual formation of all its students. Each student has his/her own personal journey which will be encouraged and respected. Students who opt out of RE class cannot be offered extra tuition or study periods.

Reviews/appeals
